Carlo Leo, co-owner of Plank Eye Board Shop taking the ramp at Bayne

Summer has arrived! In Bellevue, the season kicked off with "Go Skateboarding Day-Free Skate Jam and Cookout" hosted by Plank Eye Board Shop, co-sponsored by Enjoy Bellevue. Owners Carlo Leo and Brian Buck organized the 1pm-5pm event for skateboarders to demonstrate their skills on the ramps, skate rails, boxes and other obstacles. The $1 entry best trick contest began at 2:30 pm and ultimately the prize money was awarded to Jarred Michalski, a Fox Chapel native and a student at Pitt, now residing in Bloomfield. The title of overall best was also claimed by Jarred for the Go Skate Day.

Researching other parks, attending Council meetings, exploring funding, the project has a great start, gaining momentum with members of the skateboard community jumping on the board for the sport. Go skate!
